Testing Providers

No-cost testing through Premier Medical Group (PMG) and Curative will no longer be directly supported through this program as of June 30,

Program Changes

2022. If you wish to continue using a full-service testing vendor, you may engage in a separate contract with these or other contractors.

You may request reimbursement from your Direct Funding allocation for any fees or costs associated with testing services or test kit orders.

Please feel free to reach out to your Curative representative or PMG regional manager to discuss testing options for next year. If you wish to start your own testing program, please reference our website for information and guidance.
